This is a new training offered by Ron Young for those wishing to develop themselves within the expression of Spiritual Healing.

The Introduction is required for everyone, including those who have studied with Ron previously, as a new integration of Spiritual Healing is being presented.
The training is open to all who wish to develop themselves not as energy healers but as Spiritual Healers.

SPIRITUAL HEALING

The Sacred Door

When entering into the journey of Spiritual Healing you will encounter the Great Unknown, It will be your constant companion. It is the doorway opening you into the Mystery of Beingness and Life Itself. With time, you will gather through your experience confidence in the entry, and though you may believe yourself to understand, you will forever remain at the beginning of knowing.

As your perception grows you will also perceive the mystery revealing itself in myriads of forms, but always vanishing into itself leaving you nothing to claim as yours, with no possibility of you possessing or owning it, for no matter how much effort you make, you can never be the Doer or the Giver of the Garland of Life. At most you can be only the door that the Great Mystery opens and allows Life to pass through in Its infinite Grace and Grandeur-fulfilled within the immensity of Love and Gratitude.

As one who will carry the identity: "Spiritual Healer" - know that you are only the door for fulfilling the Destiny of those who are brought to you. Yes, this is the correct word- brought to you. For those who come to you are each carried by their Destiny, radiating from beyond the intelligence of their Spirit-Soul.

To fulfill Destiny with those who are brought to you means to enter into your spirit form as self-conscious awareness, surrendering to the Source of All that Is: Absolute Beingness-God and from that place of union, call forth Grace through which all possibilities and probabilities are available in the Vastness of the Abundance of Creation, thus revealing the healing their Spirit-Soul is seeking to manifest through your vessel- through you- as the Sacred Door.

The Destiny of each human being is not passive or happenstance. The Destiny is a fully active individuated super-intelligence radiating through each human being from beyond the soul form intelligence. The work of the "Spiritual Healer" is to assist those who seek you- to arrive at their Destination with Spirit without interference from your "personal goodness" or your "personal needs" for a desired outcome for them. Ultimately, the work is to remain within the surrender to That Which is Greater: God.

Spirit teaches the Embrace of All; in this the healing is opened and sent forth as the Creative Voicing of the Great Mystery, revealing Itself as the New Future created and revealed without the history of what came before with its apparent cause and circumstance.

This is the beginning of Spiritual Healing.
