IN-PERSON

Yuntai Mountain
Henan Province
June 8-14, 2024

Join us for this extraordinary journey into the unknown within us.

For each to realize and live fully our Power to Succeed we will be using specially designed exercises, exploring through in-depth personal investigation, meditations, family constellations, organizational constellations as developed by Ron Young.

THE POWER TO SUCCEED • Part 1

Permission to Succeed

We are each born carrying the rigidity of the unknown past and its history as it is passed to us through our incarnating, familial, and cultural fields of intelligence. This rigidity is not “personal.” It is not born from our mothers and fathers. It is multi-generational and systemic, something unknown and hidden. Often, this rigidity creates great contraction of our life force and our will and does not permit us to go forward to achieve our greatest success in our personal and professional life.

Before success arrives, each of us must own our place of power within, this is the base. The difficulty for many is that the permission to own this place of power, this entitlement to personal abundance, was never given.

Crossing the Threshold

In the previous module, Part 1, we began the movement of entering The Power to Succeed we each incarnate with by actively giving permission, thus we have arrived at the threshold of our place of Power within our Greater Self. Now, we continue by entering through our Greater Creative Intelligence, to accept without reservation our inborn authority with its innate overview. Here we enter into its manifesting intelligence founded in: compassion, responsibility and communication, as a vehicle for both success and service to humanity.

This Greater Intelligence calls us to a steadfastness of allegiance to ourselves and to the Creative Universe in which we live, and to all who live within it. This acceptance and allegiance to our Greater Intelligence, spontaneously opens within us: the courage, the willingness and the resolve to enter into the unknown future. Rooted in the fearlessness to call forth that which we have come to fully manifest and realize in our lifetime with The Power to Succeed.

THE POWER TO SUCCEED • Part 3

Union

To be born means to enter into the chaos of our journey upon the earth. Each of us arrives complete with a roadmap for The Power to Succeed and the infinite resources to fulfill our journey with Great Success. Yet in short order these resources are forgotten and dismissed through the culture of surrendering one’s definition of “reality” to be defined by the choices permitted in the individual family field, and its accompanying cultural fields.

Everyone knows well the junctures where one stands in conflict and insecurity, failure and denial, and loss of direction and self-disdain. Here one has two and only two possibilities. First, one can capitulate to the habit of complete and total collapse. Or second, one can choose the opening into one’s Greater Intelligence thus opening directly into the Creative Intelligence of our Nature, thus rooted in our Power to Succeed.

When one enters into this extraordinary field of The Greater Intelligence of Self in union with our Greater Nature, one’s self-definition and inner-permissions are both opened and regenerated. The innate Power to Succeed that each human being incarnates with is awakened to take each one forward into the Greater Future of Life itself.

THE POWER TO SUCCEED • Part 4

Looking Ahead

Our final module will be focused on integrating and stabilizing the previous teachings received during the training, with the personal life teaching each participant has experienced since completing the first three modules. We will also review the movements of success exploring the new foundation on which we stand today in our journey of manifesting the abundant flow of The Power to Succeed.
